

"My shows are designed to awaken the creativity and magic hidden within every one of us."

~ Michael Gueulette

When he's performing, you won't hear many words from the lovable clown known as Gromic. No. Instead, Gromic lets his charming personality and tender variety of visual comedy do the talking.

But, if you get the chance to speak to actor and character creator Michael Gueulette, he'll tell you that Gromic the comic "was inspired by the long tradition of European clowns and magic". Fluent in the universal language of laughter, Gromic was created to bring happiness to international audiences of all ages and cultures. And, given Gromic's long list of wonderfully-received shows throughout Europe, it's clear that Michael has succeeded. The seasoned actor has created a soulful character and a professional one-man show that are equally unforgettable!

Originally from Brussels, Belgium, Michael Gueulette began his acting career in the realm of magic and improvisational theater before exploring the world of the clown. He has entertained and delighted audiences around the world in venues ranging from street festivals to hotels, cruise ships, hospitals, corporate events and theaters. With 10+ years of entertainment experience under his hilarious hat, Michael has honed his craft into performances that dance between the side-splitting and the completely spellbinding.

Today Michael Gueulette is regarded as a consummate professional within the entertainment industry, and his character Gromic is a smash hit! He currently resides in beautiful Barcelona, Spain. And, he travels tirelessly to deliver his unique variety of magic and mirth to audiences everywhere!
